SILVER CONVENTION.
Proceedings of the Silver Party
at St. Louis.

THE CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH.
The Convention Will Indoubtedly Endorse Bryan.

When the St. Louis Silver convention met and after the call for convention had been read, Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada was introduced by Chairman Mott as temporary chairman.
The delegates gave him a hearty reception.
He made a strong speech defining the issues of the campaign, arguing in favor of the free coinage of silver and endorsing the nominee of the democratic convention and appealing for a union of all the forces favorable to silver.
When the temporary chairman finished speaking, the roll was called by states to get the names of the committee on credentials.
The following telegram was received from Senator Teller:
"I. N. Stevens Southern Hotel, St. Louis:
"The money question overshadows all others. On its right decision depends the prosperity of the people and the perpetuity of republican institutions. All other questions must be subordinated to it. A vote for Bryan and Sewall is a vote for the industrial and financial independence of the American people from foreign domination and control, and they should have the support of all opponents of the gold standard."
"H. M. TELLER."
The convention took a recess until 4:30 p. m.
AFTERNOON SESSION.
The committee on permanent organization recommended W. P. St. John, New York, for permanent chairman; Charles A. Towne, Minnesota, for vice chairman, and K. E. Defendorf, Pennsylvania, for secretary. The report was received with cheers and adopted. In taking his place St. John was greeted with three cheers.
During his speech the chairman said:
"The skill and efficiency of your labors in the past have been rewarded by the adoption of your demand for legislation by the two great organizations of the people, namely the democracy and the people's party. If now you are able to induce a coalition of these two organizations for one purpose, the desired achievement on behalf of the people will ensue."
The chairman made a telling speech which was loudly applauded but is too long for our limited space.
The general trend of all the speeches was that the great object was to secure the endorsement of Bryan and Sewall.
The motion was at once carried by a viva voce vote that the roll of states be called for the names of the men selected for the conference committee.
Among the numerous persons who have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, mention should be made of Mrs. Emily Thorne, of Toledo, Wash., who says: "I have never been able to procure any medicine that would relieve me of rheumatism like Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have also used it for lame back with great success. It is the best liniment I have ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by Druggists.
